is put into "cheap" baking powder to fill up the can; alum to raise the dough.

Alum is bad for the insides, but the manufacturer doesn't mean you any harm,—he just wants to get rich.

THE LADD & CO. CLAIMS.

of Hawaii was obtained in 1843 from the United States, England and France. In the same year Mr. Brinsmade, a member of the firm, interested a number of Belgian capitalists in the Hawaiian concession and the Belgian Colonization Company was organized.

In 1844 Mr. R. Cord became the legal adviser of the Hawaiian Government, and when the matter was submitted to him he gave as his opinion that the Ladd & Co. contract absorbed all the prerogatives of the Government and that it must be brought up, compromised or broken. Not being financially able at the time to buy back or compromise the contract the Government calmly proceeded to break it; and in order to make the contract with the Belgian company inoperative it became necessary to ruin Ladd & Co. and discredit them abroad. This, it is alleged, the Government did by causing mortgages against the Koloa plantation to be foreclosed. The Ladd & Co. contract antedates the "Mahele," and consequently embraces all the crown lands, Government lands and all lands sold by the Government since 1841.

A suit for $275,000 damages was begun by Ladd & Co. against the Hawaiian Government, but the heirs of the partners in Ladd & Co. have never been able to obtain satisfaction.

The principal heir is Colonel William C. Little of this city, stepson of William Hooper, one of the partners and the moving spirit of Ladd & Co. He said yesterday:

"I shall push our claim more vigorously than ever, with the hope that, as the matter is now of direct interest to the United States Government, we shall as American citizens have justice done us at last. When I think of the great proportions to which the sugar industry has grown in Hawaii since 1840, and the value of the crown lands, it is difficult for me to speak of the matter with calmness. We ought to be rolling in wealth now. The crown lands and all the Government lands, with the improvements and the income from them, ought to be mine for fifty years to come. Besides we would have had a practical monopoly of all the sugar business. Spreckels wouldn't be in it."

"The contract between Kamehameha III and Ladd & Co. was made in good faith, and every condition of it was fulfilled on our side. My stepfather, Mr. Hooper, was the moving spirit of Ladd & Co., and was one of the greatest benefactors of the Hawaiian race. It was he who persuaded the King and the chiefs to emancipate the natives from the cruel slavery that had always been practised. It

Best Remedy For Flu.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flu, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." "There Are Other Pebbles."

But do not for a moment think that the Anchor Saloon is just like them. Liquid refreshments, to be refreshing, require a certain dash of skill and experience in the mixing. Carlyle and Andrews make a great success in this department and stand ready to satisfy patrons in the matter of Seattle beer on draught, as well as all the best brands of whisky, viz: John Dewar's Scotch, O. P. S., etc., and from a full line of other liquors and wines cannot fail to fill even the most exacting and varied demand.
